ATTACK...AND...DEFENCE

UPSET GAVE SEASONS 'SHOT IN THE ARM'

Last weekend's results gave the game a "shot in the arm".

It only needed a Bankstown victory over Prague to complete the issue.

Just as fans were considering other interests — because Prague appear "home and hosed", with Corrimal next, followed by APIA — the unexpected happened.

Hakoah flopped, then recovered next day to down Corrimal.

APIA, before a tremendous crowd, got within two point's of Corrimal with a 1—0 win over Canterbury.

Sydney Austral fell to giant-killers Balgownie and lost their position in the "four".

At the other end, Balgownie shocked the fans on Saturday with a convincing win over the highly rated Hakoah.

McWatter's had a field day, scoring five goals.

Balgownie may yet escape relegation.

Budapest won by the odd goal in five to out-smart Gladesville, who retrieved their position with a 3—0 win over Bankstown.

The latter now run a grave risk of being relegated.

Granville had a field day at the expense of Auburn.

This could seriously effect Auburn's chance of making the semi-finals.

However, both Auburn and Gladesville still "live" in a fight for very open third and fourth places.

North Side narrowly defeated Concord to increase their margin of safety.

The Federation's policy of promotion and relegation has centainly caught the magination of the people.

About 15,000 turned out last weekend to key fixtures at both ends of the table.

Coaching of juniors

Anyone interested in learning the fundamentals of soccer is requested to write to the Federation secretary, Mr E. Princi, Box 596 G.P.O., Sydney.

This course is for anyone over 18 years desirous of training 10-year-old footballers.

The course lasts six weeks and successfull students will be awarded coaching certificates by the Federation.

World Cup film

One of the most outstanding sport films of recent years — the 1958 World Cup series — will be screened again at the Assembly Hall, City, on Monday night, July 20, beginning at 7.30.

This film shows all the 16 teams which qualified in action, in addition to the brilliant Brazilians, who won the Cup.

Kennapool Result:

Winners: F. Parsons and J. Bayutti, 8 pts.

'Bargains' in overseas clubs offers

Scotland's 36 professional clubs this year released enough players as "free" transfers to start 25 football teams.

Here, for instance, is a team of "free" players in their respective positions that would do justice to any country in any part of the world:

G. Stewart (Stirling Albion); F. Meechan (Celtic); J. Paterson (Hibs); A. Wright (Falkirk); F. Glidden (Hearts), J. Prentice (Falkirk); G. Smith (Hibs), J. Watson (Dunfermline), A. McEwan (Rangers), S. Wilson (Celtic), B. Callan (Stirling Albion).

All these players maybe had without a transfer fee — they are your's for the best available terms.

We venture to say that if the above team were to come to Australia, as a unit, it would "clean up" all opposition here.

Or Sammy Wilson, Celtic's inside left and, what's more, leading scorer for last season, on the same terms.

Not included in this team is Celtic's other international inside forward J. Higgins.

It would be possible for a group of enterprising individuals to form £10,000 company, hire a suitable ground and bring out six "free transfer" players, or players in the £1000 category.

Big crowds

We are certain that the placement of these men in a team here would draw at least 15,000 people at their first appearance.

In two "home" games the company's outlay would be returned.

Imagine the increased crowds that would come to watch soccer each week if some enterprissng individuals or club brought out the team we named above.

However, we realise that such a venture may not suit clubs as they are constituted at present.

Next week we will offer a suggestion that is within the scope of all clubs aspiring to top class soccer.

For clubs interested, here is the "free" list of three of Scotland's leading clubs — Rangers, Celtic, and Hearts.

RANGERS: A. McEwan, W. Hogg, W. Smith, W. Moles and I. Atkinson.

CELTIC: W. Gribben, J. Higgins, J. Jack, F. Meechan, A. Murphy and S. Wilson.

HEARTS: T. McKenzie, F. Glidden, A. Glover, W. Lindores, D. Kidd, P. Smith, H. Goldie and A. Finlay.

OVERSEAS ROUND-UP

EUROPEAN champions Real Madrid are currently touring South America and play matches against Millionarios Bogota (Colombia), Mexico (National team), Lima (Peru) and conclude their tour in New York, where they have been offered £8000 to play a local Hungarian team (mostly escapes from the 1956 revolution).

Officials expect this match to beat all US gate and attendence records as most of the 55,000 seats are already sold.

FRENCH team Rheims, who where this year's European Cup runners-up, are having a very poor Russian tour.

They lost all four of their matches with the top four Russian clubs.

All games drew capacity crowds of 100,000 and the big profits the team will be taking back to France will provide the only bright spot in what has been the worst tour ever of a French club side abroad.

FIGURES just published in New Caledonia show that the country has 367 soccer clubs and 6,000 players.

This is surely remarkable when you consider the island's population is merely 70,000.

Shortage of good grounds is a big problem, which still has had to be solved, though some progress is being made.

FRENCH trainers are much in demand these days following France's meteoric rise in world soccer ranking.

Ex-internationals Elek Schawartz, Jean Prouff, Jean Snella, Paul Baron and Henri Hellenio are trainer-coaches for Holland, Poland, Switzerland, Greece and Spain.

This is a remarkable achievement, which can only be matched by the famous Hungarians and Englishmen now trainers all over the globe.

Letters to the Editor

Referees are not biased

From time to time soccer players and spectators approach referees outside soccer grounds, maybe socially or in the same places of employment, and, during a course of amiable conversation state that most referees are biased and prejudiced against European teams players.

Nothing could be further from the truth.

A good many of the referees come from abroad and hence have had no connection with local soccer clubs and, therefore, no interest whatsoever in the outcome of a game — yet, they too, have been accused of favoring a particular club.

If a referee were biased or prejudiced, it would be quite difficult for him to control a game; because to favor one side consistently, one would have to anticipate a decision before the final outcome of a play and this is practically impossible without dire consequences.

Furthermore, an official of the calibre just mentioned would not last as a whistle-blower very long, either with the Sydney Soccer Referees or the Federation.

Players and spectators must appreciate that it is a long process to become a referee, especially a senior one.

There are not many spectators, players and even officials who would pass the difficult examination and field test.

Also, through experience, a referee cultivates or develops a habit, when entering the field of play, of not having a chip on his shoulder — this again may be difficult to believe, but it is true.

It must be realised also that participants and supporters of one club see only one side — their side.

But the referee has to see both sides, quickly grasp the situation, adjudicate and blow his whistle — a rather difficult operation, and without much time for playing favorites.

Of course, referees are human beings; some are fast, others slow, some fat, others thin; also there are the dramatic, the acrobatic, and the aristocratic, not forgetting the dictatorial, the ones who whistle and yell, and those who really can't tell.

And, as it takes all sorts to make up this grand game of soccer, the spectators are welcome to have a yell at the referee.

But for heaven's sake let us really forget about this silly idea of referees being biased against European players or teams — THEY ARE DEFINITELY NOT.

TEAM of the WEEK

Every week an A and B team is selected from the best players in First Division teams.

The best A team player is nominated as the "Player of the Week" and scores three points.

All other A team nominations receive two points and B team players one point.

The player with the highest number of points at the end of the season will automatically become Player of the Year.

Ampol Cup fixtures, Federation Cup matches and the competition semi-finals, final and grand-final are not taken into account.

Here are the players who stood out in last weekend's two rounds of matches.

Player of the Week

W. TAMANDL

(PRAGUE)

Tamandl's tireless work and positional play spearheaded his team to two wins over the weekend and it can be safely said that the Austrian inside right was the inspiration benind his team.

On Saturday he opened the score at a very timely moment after a beautiful solo dash, and on Sunday was the stalwart of a very depleted team.

His perfect understnding with his other inside man and forwards generally is a feature of his game, but his greatest asset is his continual switching from defence into attack and clever body-swerving.

This weekend's games preview

HAKOAH v BANKSTOWN

When last these two teams met the Towns held their visitors to a scoreless draw and will be flat out to win at least another point tomorrow at the E.S.Marks Field, as their situation is growing more desperate with every loss.

The fact that they are three points behind their nearest rival, Balgownie, must be heart breaking for their many loyal supporters.

Bankstown went down 0—3 to Prague last week but — except for the last 15 minutes — were not disgraced.

They gave a pretty good account of themselves for the first 60 minutes and had Barry Wainwright not been injured I really think that the home team could have taken the lead before 'lemons', and given Prague a still harder game.

By L. Gautier

As things stood, the forwards were never really dangerous because wingers Brown and Phillips kept the ball far too long and, as there was a big gap in the centre, Hiron and his defenders were never pressed, and could pass the ball calmly to their forwards.

Bob Madden and goalie Green stood out once again and cannot take any blame for any goal.

Undoubtedly this weekend Bankstown will be up against a lesser opponent, but their frankly poor display last Sunday against Gladesville in a deferred game prevents me from favoring them to win.

I think the club would be happy if it could share the points this time, too.

Hakoah's display over the weekend proved my point that the team is the most inconsistent in this year's competition.

On Saturday, Balgownie downed the Blues in the biggest upset of the season.

The Sydneysiders can offer some excuse because of Walsh's and Aird's injuries, but it is hard to imagine the rock-like defence going to pieces the way it did.

Hakoah, with a much changed combination, were a different proposition on Sunday when they beat Corrimal at the E.S.Marks Field.

This good win must have boosted their much deflated moral after the previous day's rout.

Lanky, raw-boned, former Newcastle centre-forward Burgoyne, was Hakoah's best player over the weekend.

Levainson confirmed his present good form and Aranyi once again showed how consistent he is.

Frank Hearn had a woeful weekend, as did Forgacs and Schussig.

Saturday's game will be a close one as the Towns adapt themselves quite well to Hakoah's style of football, and if Walsh is still unfit the home side could be in for a shock.

Battling for points

But as the visitor's talented forward Wainwright will miss the game, too, I expect HAKOAH to take both points.

But lookout for points-hungry Bankstown, who are on the brink of Second Division following their black weekend.

CANTERBURY v NTH SIDE

A very good game can be expected at Arlington Oval on Saturday.

North Side, fighting against relegation, have had an encouraging run of undefeated games and Canterbury, following last week's mixed-bag of results, is battling for points to take it into the top four.

CURRY

It will be interesting to see North Side's Italian-German-Malayan forward line in action against the solid Curry and his workman-like defence.

Delzio made an auspicious debut in first-grade Sydney soccer last week and could, and surely will, develop into one of his new team's stars.

Wong was brilliant at times, but both Zanetti and Varglien had an off-day.

It seems to me that Zanetti at 34 might be finding the Federation tempo a bit too strenuous for him.

Canterbury shocked by trouncing Corrimal down the coast Saturday.

But the team was evidently leg-weary when it could not repeat this win and lost 0—1 to APIA in a top-class game the following day.

Canterbury were definitely tired on Sunday, but this does not altogether account for the forwards poor showing.

Moore, Knapp, Young and Neal very rarely saw the ball and Watkiss, alone, tried to cope.

The defence was remarkable and the team can thank Maxie Lemon for keeping the score down.

Curry, North and Schopf gave excellent displays, too, and I was very happy to see the latter not indulging in any tantrums and really playing the brilliant soccer he can.

It can be said that Canterbury were lucky and that the score flattered them on the day, yet as I have said before they were obviously run-down and did not last the whole 90 minutes.

Though North Side is the most improved team, with possibly Granville and even Balgownie now, in the competition, I must tip CANTERBURY to win.

But a draw would not surprise me.

Both teams play good soccer and do not indulge in spoiling tactics and this could be of the most entertaining game of the afternoon.

CUNEEN

CONCORD v GRANVILLE

Granville should prove superior at Concord Oval when they play the luckless home team, who gave North Side a good run for its money last week, but could not finish off any attacking movement.

Hourigan gave a sterling display once again in goal and Bruce McFarlane really shone and deserves a better fate.

Concord were swamped in the deferred game by Prague, but must be given credit for keeping the game open.

The visiting Granville 11 is riding on the crest of the biggest wave of confidence that has ever swept the Granville area, and so they should after their sensational 7—1 win over the much-fancied Auburn.

At the beginning of the season few people would have given the Magpies a chance of finishing anywhere, but at the bottom of the table.

Yet the team, the only unchanged one, in the competition, is proving very capable.

They have mixed established players with new talent, drawn from their wide junior organisations, and talent flows quick and thick down Granville way.

Escaped relegation

Last Saturday, Granville were always on top and the opposition had no answer to any of their moves.

Kendall, Cuneen, Flynn, Smith and, above all, Frank Garside were terrific.

The last named was the best man on the field.

This was the first time in six years that Granville had beaten their traditional rivals and by the same token the team has escaped — for good I think — the relegation zone.

Being free from this worry should help Granville achieve some other good results.

It is a pity the team woke up so late, as this burst of brilliance a month earlier could have put them into semi-final calculations.

I am, of course, tipping GRANVILLE to beat Concord, but, as I said last week, the lower teams are the hardest to beat this season and shocks can be expected.

Concord will be no exception, but the visitors should really be too good and I expect them to win by quite a confortable margin.

GLAD'SVILLE v BALGOWNIE

Here we have a vital clash between a team (Balgownie) which is booming as it never has before and another (Gladesville) which is slipping badly after a promising run of wins late in the first round of the competition.

Balgownie must be heartily congratulated on the "dream weekend", which saw them thrash Hakoah and Sydney Austral, both leading teams vying for the fourth berth in the semi-finals.

The fact that the Villagers showed no signs of weariness at home the very day after their big Sydney win speaks for itself, and shows what improvement the side has made under the able coaching of ex-international Sam Ward.

Against Hakoah, Terry Mc Watters, only 21 mind you, scored five goals which is a record individual effort in any match this year.

He deserved every one of them and could have added another three with a little bit of luck.

McWatter captured the public's imagination with this remarkable feat, but it was the hard-working and volatile right half Garipoli who really starred.

And outside left Rvan played his best game ever against Hakoah.

Young Mueller showed intelligence and beautiful ball control in this his first big match.

When he acquires more confidence with experience he will be a "natural".

Tommy Kay is a tireless worker.

Although Balgownie won both last weekend's matches easily, goalie Billington had no easy task on both afternoons.

Gladesville were below form at Arlington last Saturday and Hume missed the first penalty of his short career at a very vital stage.

Nevertheless, Budapest really deserved to win and it was good to see good fortune smile at them at last after so much bad luck.

The home team badly missed Pretswell and McLelland — one out for business interests the other still recovering from injury.

I believe however, this robust full back will be back for tomorrow's game and will strengthen his club.

Hume was brilliant on Sunday and scored all three goals.

He will have to be watched by Grantas as he is reverting to his old centre forward position.

Imports

Gladesville is expecting two top Scottish players and this will be benefical towards the end of the season, because the club probably will be well in semi-final calculations.

All said and done this match at Gladesville sports ground will be a "no beg pardons" one, with both teams intent on winning the full points.

Balgownie have much brighter prospects of staving off relegation following last week's upsets, but I still favor GLADESVILLE to remain undefeated this season on their home-ground.

PRAGUE v SYD. AUSTRAL

This is Sydney's major Sunday game and will be played at the E. S. Marks Field although it is Austral's home game.

The first round game was a very close one, with Sydney Austral defending grimly and I expect the return clash to follow the same pattern.

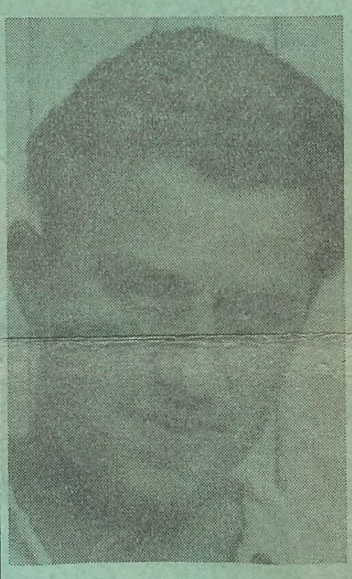
Sydney Austral are slipping badly, though not quite unexpectedly, from the top places and it seems that after Sunday's game they will be nearly out of running for the first "four" places.

Outplayed

Sydney Austral were generally outplayed by Balgownie last Sunday and it was largely due to Gerry De Vries, once again, that the team did not lose by a wider margin.

The forwards were practically non-existent, but centre half Evans played a good game and worked overtime covering up the holes torn by the opposing forwards.

Sydney Austral will have to improve on last week's performance, and the past few ones, too, if they are to put up a good fight against Prague.



TAMANDL

Prague gave two very creditable performances last weekend to defeat Bankstown and Concord in two days.

At Bankstown Oval the leaders did not have things all

AROUND THE JUNIORS

First round matches in the State Junior championships Under 18 series are being played this Saturday.

St. George will be the visitors at Punch Oval, with Canterbury the hosts.

At MaArthur Park, Granville District will be at home to Protestant Churches.

s so many Under 18 players are only a year or two removed from big football, energetic attempts have been made to revive the grade as a major event.

That seven Sydney Associations have entered volumes for the progress already made.

Other major developing Associations will be conducting their own Under 18 competitions within one or two years.

WEEKEND PREVIEW

their way until the final 15 minutes, the pattern of all Prague's matches, once opponents get discouraged and give way to frustration.

Les Scheinflug was not a success at outside left, his former position, but he really shone at half wing in the second half when he replaced the injured Jaros.

Baumgartner and Schwartz should never have taken the field as they were obviously unfit to play and hindered their partners.

Kennie Hiron played a grand game at centre half and both O'Neill and Sherwin gave sound displays.

All round, Prague played a good game on Saturday.

Walter Tamandl and Andreas Saghi were brilliant over the weekend.

The first one notched five goals and the second four.

Tamandl inspired his team to its big win over Concord on Sunday, and it must be remembered that neither Baumgartner, Jaros nor Schwartz took the field at Mona Park.

I expect PRAGUE to win this match on Sunday as the team has proved that even without stars of the calibre of last week's injured players it can do well.

Sydney Austral are, of course, a much stronger team than Concord, but I do not think they are capable of upsetting the smooth Prague machine.

AUBURN v BUDAPEST

Auburn, at Mona Park, will play hosts to Budapest, who caused one of the upsets of the season in downing Gladesville.

Auburn won the first-round match, thanks to a disputed penalty in the last minutes.

I think Sunday's game also will be a very close one as there is not much between both teams, with Auburn a point ahead on the table.

Budapest can produce the best brand of football . . . and the worst.

Auburn are certainly more consistent, though their crushing defeat last week shows that any team can have a day when nothing comes off.

Quested, Dayney and Hal. tried hard against Granville, but the odds were against them.

Granville were just too good on the day.

Auburn will have played a tough game with APIA the previous day, which will favor Budapest.

If Budapest can hold Auburn till the last half hour, then condition could tell and Budapest might reverse last round's defeat.

Budapest selected

On the other hand, if Auburn have settled down again following last weekend's crushing loss and, above all, if the team does well on Saturday against APIA, then Budapest will have to face up to some very unpleasant moments.

I might be sticking my neck out, but I am confident that BUDAPEST can win this vital match in their desperate bid to avoid relegation.

One thing is certain — the team cannot afford to lose many games from now on with Balgownie breathing down their necks.

CORRIMAL v APIA

This is undoubtedly the weekend's match of the day and what a sensational game it should be, even more so if APIA beats Auburn on Saturday.

Both teams would be level on points and this battle of the "seconds" should ensure a big crowd at Memorial Drive, Corrimal.

Corrimal had a disastrous weekend and are in danger of losing their second place and joining the ranks after nearly 18 months of exalted placings.

Canterbury gave them their biggest beating in years, and on Sunday Hakoah reversed, as I had predicted, their first round loss by exactly the same score.

Though throughly thrashed 4—0, Corrimal only folded up in the last 15 minutes when the Berries ran riot.

Of course, Taylor, the full back, was a passenger for the whole game.

But this still does not account for this disaster at home.

I believe that the Miners need more young, promising players in their ranks.

Men like Bignell, Peters, Young, Rowles, Learmonth and Stewart have been on the deck for more than eight to 10 years.

These players are still good and very useful to their club, but in this highly competitive era this is far from being enough.

All the other teams are building up — either developing junior talent or importing players.

At the moment Corrimal is doing neither, and I am at a loss to understanding why such a powerful club has no wealth of young talent to back it.

APIA should have scored a bigger win over Canterbury at Lambert Park, but the forwards failed dismally.

Turella's goal was the best seen this year on this ground and it is lucky indeed that this highly individualistic effort was surficient to win the match.

But generally the whole forward line showed little enterprise, though constantly in Canterbury territory.

Strong defence

Vasvary is definitely far from the early season form which gained him "rep" honors for the State.

Pittioni is gifted, but not "fed" enough.

Eggler and De Paoli were weak to say the least.

Turella was the only lively forward.

APIA's defence is strong and catlike goalie Alocca is at the moment a better proposition than M. Trisic, who is badly out of touch.

Marston, Hawkshaw and Stedman, the latter particularly, always had the edge last week on their jaded opponents.

But once again it was the half wing pair of T. Cinat and Joe Alocca who won the game for the home team.

Both half lines for this game will be in the limelight and I think the more polished and technical APIA will come out on top.

But all will rest on the APIA forwards and whether or not they can make the best of the many balls they will receive.

If Vasvary plays as well as he can and especially if De Paoli thinks less about himself, then APIA will win.

Corrimal, I feel have struck a bad patch, which could last a few weeks.

Their morale must be at its lowest ebb, because of their two consecutive defeats last week.

But Corrimal could benefit from APIA's possible weariness, because it will be the latter's turn this week to play two matches.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

Unpredictable Hakoah played grand, scientific football to beat top team George Cross 3—0 at Olympic Park on Saturday.

The Blues scored all three goals in a devastating first half, during which Hans Pettersen, recently transferred from Wilhelmina, run riot on the wing.

He was magnificently supported by Syd Thomas, Hakoah's right wing half, who supplied the ball to Pettersen with uncanny accuracy.

The winger responded by scoring two glorious goals.

The other scorer was Burchard.

Hakoah's cast iron defence never allowed the nippy George Cross forward line to settle down and centre half Barker in particular played an outstanding game.

He completely subdued the dangerous George Cross centre forward Zammit, renowned for his scoring ability.

Best players for Hakoah were Pettersen, Barker, Blakely and Thomas.

George Cross were very well served by Junkovic, Sacco, Muscat and Copeland.

RIVERINA ROUND-UP

By GEORGE COUSINS

At Wagga last weekend a great game was winnesed when Arsenal held their first half lead to defeat Henwood Park 2—1.

Both displayed good team work, but Henwood was a bit too much centre forward conscious in the first half.

They had left their run too late when they opened up play to the wings.

W. Dejong turned in his usual sound performance at centre half and was well supported by half back John Wright.

For Arsenal, Habul, who is getting in the veteran stage, turned on a sterling performance and gave his forward a feast of the ball.

Pitura and Maher were sound, with their fine placements and control.

Referee Basset impressed with his clear decisions and kept the game going.

Teachers College had a 3—0 victory at the expense of United at the Teachers' oval.

The young Teachers were much faster to the ball than the black and golds and, after leading at 1—0 at the break, notched up two in the second half.

Skinenr, Lobb and Geekie combined well on the left side and made the moves that resulted in goals.

Huge Score

The United forwards were listless and suffed quite a few chances after receiving some good passes from the back line.

The strong Griffith side thrashed a weakned Rangers team to the tune of 16—0.

This is the biggest score ever in the Wagga district.

This weekend Henwood Park are at home to Leeton in an interesting game.

These two teams met in the first round of the Wright-Cup, with Henwood winning 4—1, but Leeton were without their dashing centre forward, Alexander.

Henwood realise they have to win to get into the "four" and to do this they must play team soccer and leave individual play behind.

Army should not be troubled against Rangers, but the latter are confident of fielding their best to date.

The Griffith RAAF lash should be very even, although the RAAF boys, after being on leave for two weeks, are in need of match practice.

Teachers have got a big job ahead of them against Arsenal, but if they mark the Reds and Whites closely the margin should be narrow.

JUST surprised pleasantly by holding powerful Wilhelmina to a 2—2 draw at the Showground.

It was a fair result, despite the fact that Keuken, who scored two good goals, missed several easy scoring chances set up by the brilliant DeBrueyekere.

The match was highlighted by a terrific drive by JUST player Fabianjic, which hit the cross bar with Dutch keeper Morks beaten all the way.

Narrow escape

Rodek scored both goals for JUST after good play by Beattie and Marinovic.

Best for Wilhelmina were Vesterwelt, Luyten and DeBrueyekere — for JUST, Rezuk, Beattie and Gulin.

Box Hill won their important match with Footscray 2—0.

But they had several narrow escapes before Smith made certain several minutes before the end with a glorious shot into the roof of the net.

Box Hill's other scorer was Benford.

Veterans Bob Wemys (Footscray) and Angus Drennan (Box Hill) were the outstanding players on the field.

Slavia had to fight hard to defeat a much improved Geelong 2—0 at Corio Oval.

Geelong were without their Victorian representative goalie DeFrancesco.

Rumor has it that he left for Sydney to negotiate with a prominent Federation club.

His deputy, 16-year-old Castellani, played well and could not be faulted with the goals scored by Cooke and Armstrong.

Best for Slavia were Borotja and Armstrong, and for Geelong, Gennani and Zavattier.

Suspension

Polonia had no difficulty in recording a 6—0 victory over Yarra Park, who were without their captain Pikoylas, suspended for the rest of the season as a result of last week's incident.

A pleasing feature for Polonia officials and supporters was the continued improvement shown by the imported players, particularly Janczyk, who scored three goals, and Szygalski.

Yarra Park never gave up trying, and on several occasions. Jeys came close to scoring.

Vamakas, although beaten six times, played extremely well, making many fine saves including some from point-blank range.

On Sunday at Olympic Park, Juventus narrowly defeated Moreland 1—0 in a dull match with neither side showing any initiative.

Juventus at least had a few bright moments, but generally there was little to excite the crowd of 4000.

The only score was a clumsy own goal by a Moreland defender.

Neither side were able to control the lively ball and both forward lines missed open goal.

Good saves

At times the Juventus left wing of Oughton and Tomblin attempted to play football, but the kick and rush approach by Moreland forced them to do likewise.

Moreland goalie Hodson made several good saves and together with Oxton and Hodson was best for his side.

Juventus individually better than their opponents, had good players in the left wing pair.

Frangioni did not show the form expected from a State League player.

Both teams can play much better, and even against lowly Footscray this weekend Juventus cannot afford to treat the game in the same lackadaisical manner as against Moreland.

And Moreland's last performance is hardly sufficient to test Polonia's strength, but I expect Moreland to make several team changes which will help to bring out the best in the Poles.

Sunday's match between Hakoah and Wilhelmina should be worth watching and a big crowd is expected at Olypic Park.

Saturday's vital clash between George Cross and Slavia at Olympic Park should be a thriller.

DOUBLE-HEADERS?

Letters keep flowing in.

Criticism, praise, suggestions, new ideas, old ideas made look new.

Here is an idea, sent in by a Mr. Szczebrzeszynski, of Chester Hill, which, in my opinion, should — at least — be discussed.

Mr. Sz.....ski, in his letter, suggests a way to boost attendances.

He says: "...first division competition should consist of sixteen teams. There should be two good grounds appointed and improved to necessary standard. All first div. matches would be played on these two grounds.

"On Saturdays — two first division matches on each of them, and on Sundays — another two double-headers.

"Each double-header would bring higher gates than a combined effort of two matches played on separate grounds.

"This was proved beyond doubt during Ampol Cup matches, when we had at least one good match out of the two on the programme."

I don't quite agree with the idea, particularly with the first part of it.

We cannot afford to carry 16 teams in Sydney — not without affecting the standard we worked so hard to achieve.

Twelve teams is the absolute maximum.

Even with 12 teams we just haven't got enough players to reinforce first grade teams and maintain the standard, especially midway through the competition, when teams have anything up to six injuries.

But — double-headers could be a solution to our immediate problem — gates, for instance.

With 12 teams in the competiton we could, perhaps, have one double-header Saturdays and two on Sundays or, maybe, two on each day, as suggested, with four teams doubling up every weeks.

This could be benefical to the less financial clubs.

And apart from gates it could have other important influence on the code:

- Extra free dates for Cup, interstate and international fixtures.
- Higher standard of play — as soccer players, like actors, seem to like performing before large galleries.

GENERAL RESHUFFLE

So far — so good — you'll say — but what about second and third grades?

They would have to be disassociated from first grade and play their matches on other grounds.

That's how it's done overseas.

You must bear in mind that First Divisions overseas are National Leagues.

Teams have to travel for their matches and it would be uneconomical to drag reserve grade teams along.

So they are engaged in local competitions.

In some countries reserve grade teams play in district, A-grade competitions.

Winners of these competitions qualify for a play-off for promotion to the lowest division of a National League, be it second or third division, depending on the country.

Reserve teams cannot be promoted, of course, even if successful in winning the competition.

In our case — some second grade (First Div.) teams should play in second division, but without promotion rights.

Teams like Canterbury, APIA or Hakoah reserves would be more than a match for some of our Second Division teams.

Other second grade sides are not quite up to that standard — yet they are engaged in the same competition.

These weaker second grade teams could play in Third Division, with the right of promotion to Second Division, but no further.

Third grade teams, being virtually nurseries for higher grades, should be engaged in their own competition.

This reshuffle could strengthen both Second and Third Divisions.

Particularly Second Division, which, in any case, will be a very strong one next year with the inclusion of two, and possibly — three First Division teams, demoted this year.

These are not suggestions. They are loose thoughts, not even mine, for discussion.

"FAIR GO" FOR SOUTH COAST

This one is my own, and a precise one at that.

It concerns the relegation-promotion system.

I feel two teams should be relegated and promoted each year.

I also feel a decision of this kind appears to be a matter of utmost urgency.

Three teams are going down to Second Division at the end of the season and we should give every possible chance to at least two of them to come back to top soccer after one year's "punishment".

Also, we should ensure South Coast of getting a "fair go" in the system.

As things are now — what is going to happen should Balgownie have the misfortune to be relegated this year?

Won't they be given an opportunity to come back?

Besides, how do we know the winner of our Second Division is a better team and a better equipped one to be in First Division than the winner of the South Coast League?

I would suggest that the winners of Sydney's Second Division and the South Coast League play off for the priviledge of promotion to Federation's First Division.

And that the practice be followed every year.

INSPIRATION?

Budapest played its last match against Gladesville in... Ferencvaros' colors.

The green and white striped jerseys were given to them by the famous Hungarian club on it's tour of Australia two years ago.

Could Ferencvaros jerseys have anything to do with Budapest's win...?
